The Society for Molecular Biology and Evolution (SMBE) is an international society that provides facilities for association and communication among molecular evolutionists. Membership of SMBE is open to anyone actively interested in molecular evolutionary biology. The Society sponsors an annual scientific meeting, for which members pay a reduced registration fee. In 2002 the meeting will be held in Sorrento, Italy.

Molecular Biology and Evolution (ISSN 0737-4038) is published monthly by the Society for Molecular Biology and Evolution, Allen Press, 810 East 10th Street, Lawrence, KS 66044-8897.

Membership of SMBE includes a subscription to Molecular Biology and Evolution. Further information about membership and subscriptions is available at <http://www.molbioevol.org/subscriptions/>.

Correspondence about change of address, missing issues, and other non-editorial matters should be addressed to: Molecular Biology and Evolution, P.O. Box 1897, Lawrence, KS 66044-8897. Editorial Correspondence should be addressed to mbe@anu.edu.au.

Information about preparation and submission of manuscripts is at: <http://www.molbioevol.org/misc/ffora.shtml>
